

Closeup of a screw being adjusted and fitted.

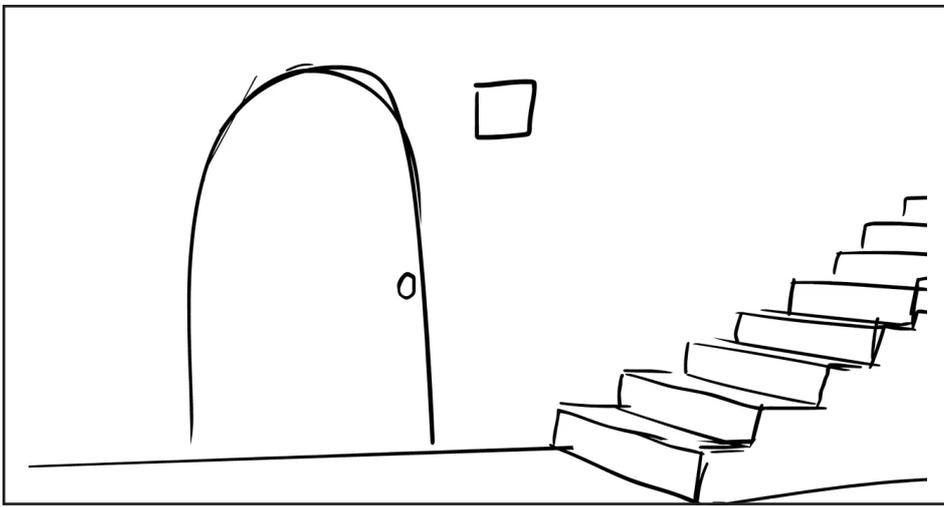

We zoom slowly out and see a room with lots of icons that are glowing green but one, the heart, is not. A person is finishing screwing together a box. you can see several other tools on the table.

She observes the finished box and seems happy about her finished box.

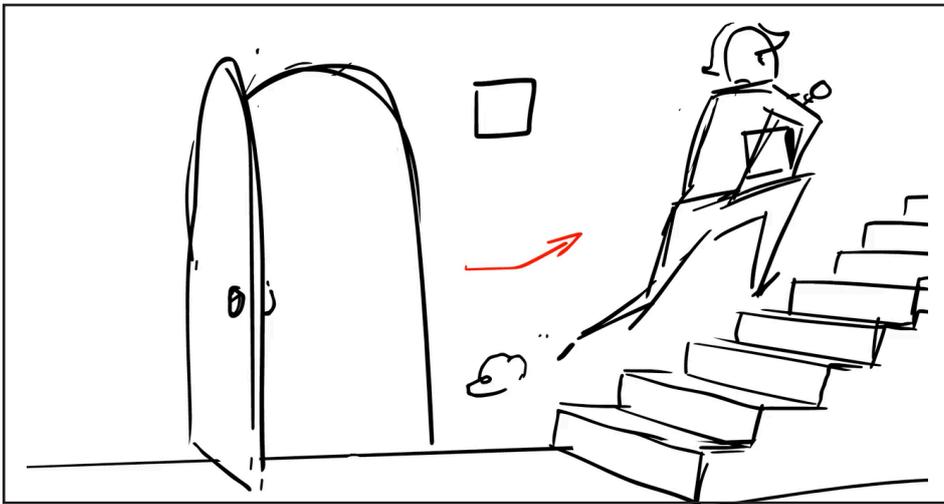

The heart icons turns green an a red light above her head turns also green.

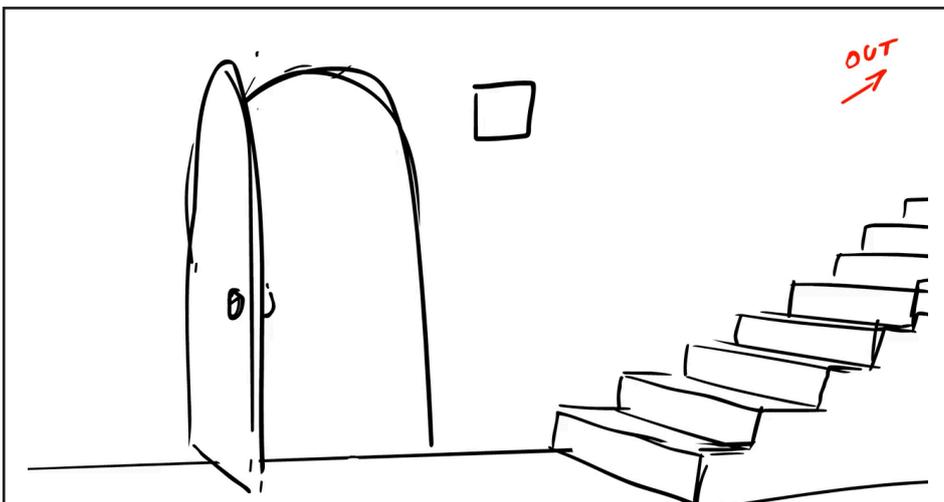

Outside of the room and a stairs next to it.

She swings open the door ...

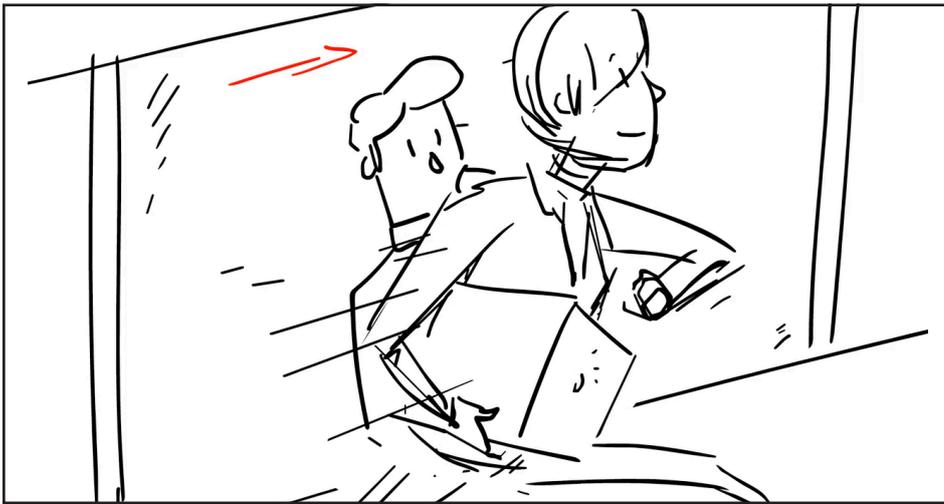

... and runs up the stairs.

A man in a suit is standing at a window and is drinking a coffee.

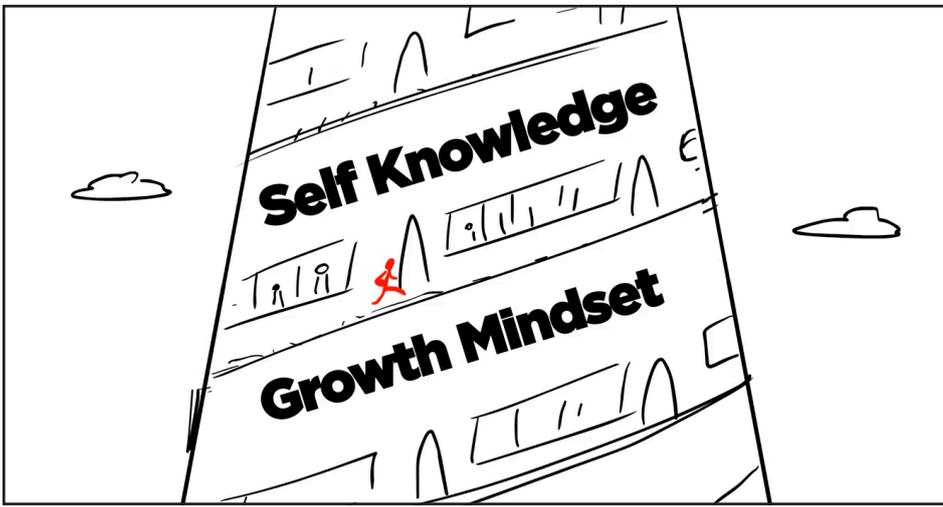

Suddenly the woman runs past him.

Beat.

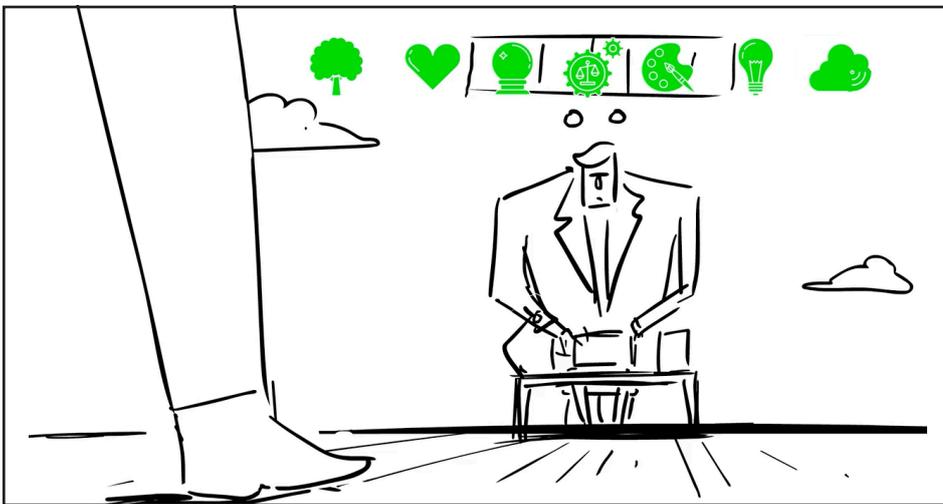

The man looks after her.

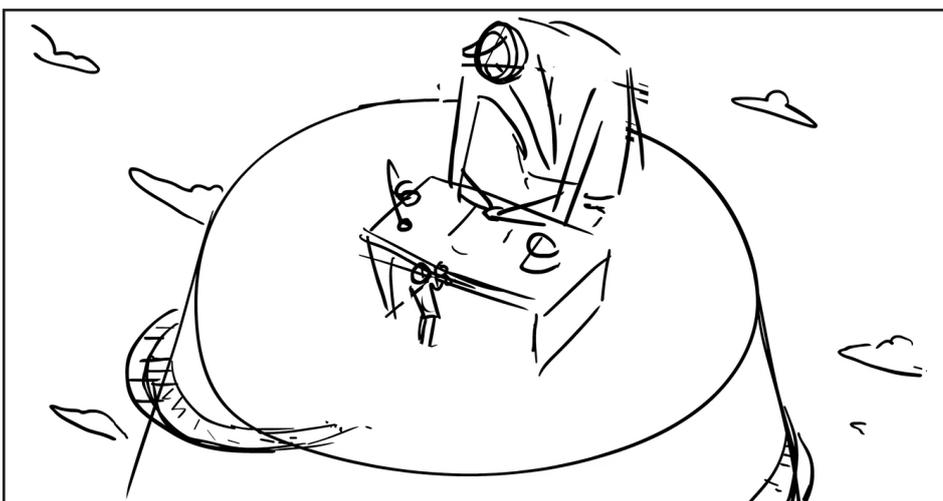

We Pan out and see that she is running up a tower with several personal levels.

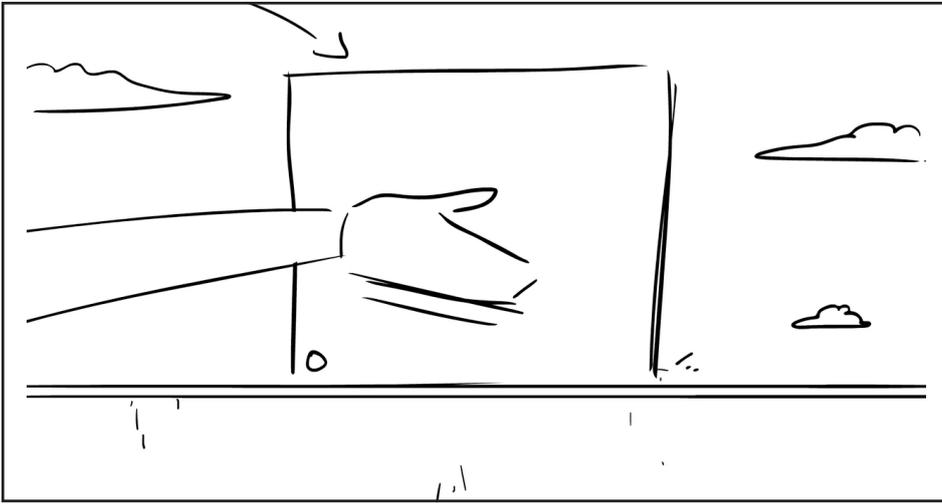

A low angle shot. Clouds move by. We are very high up and the a big Boss at a small desk working. All of his icons are glowing green.

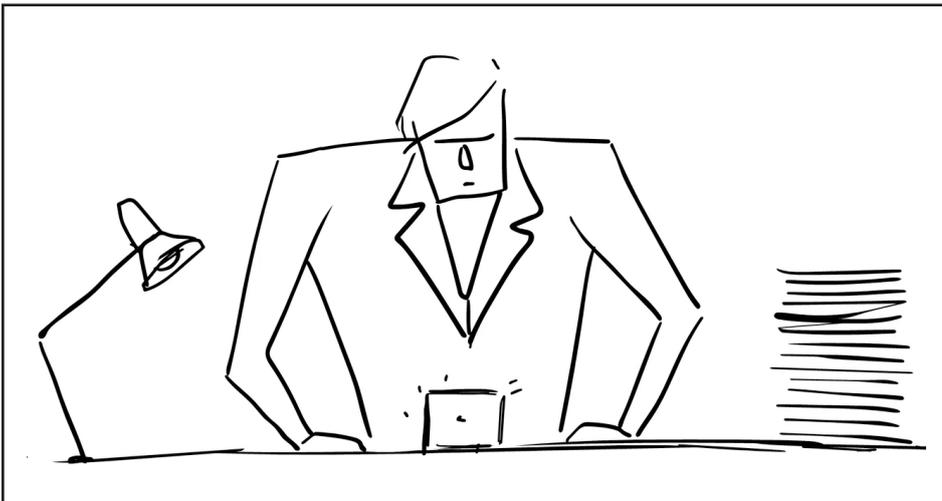

A foot stomps onto the floor just next to the camera.

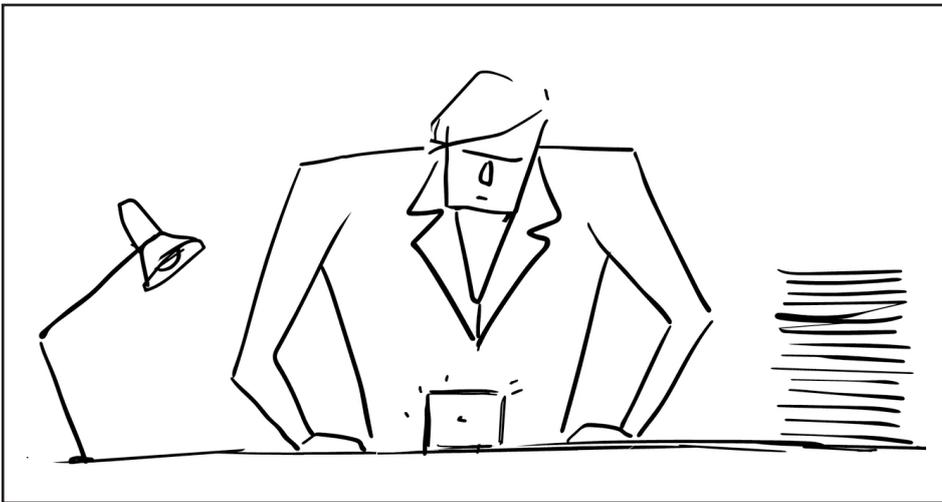

We see that it is the woman and she has made it to the top of the tower. She goes over to the desk of the Boss.

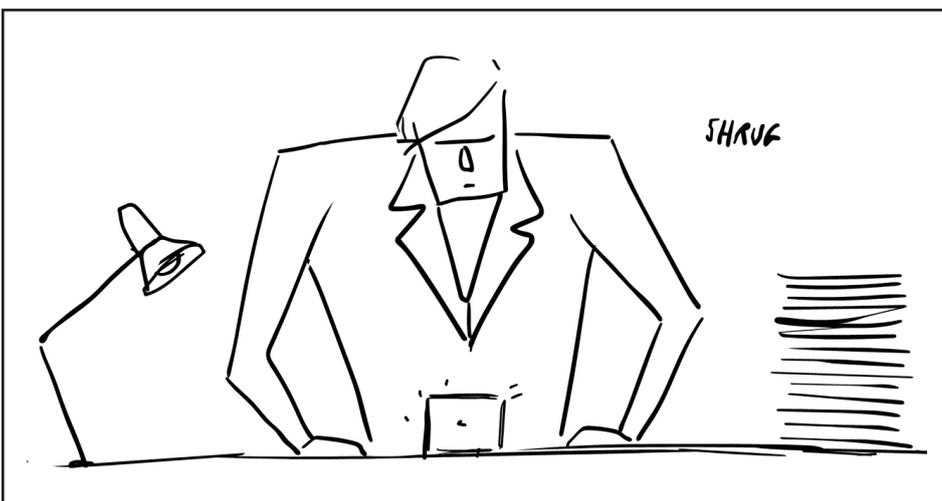

She puts her new box on the desk.

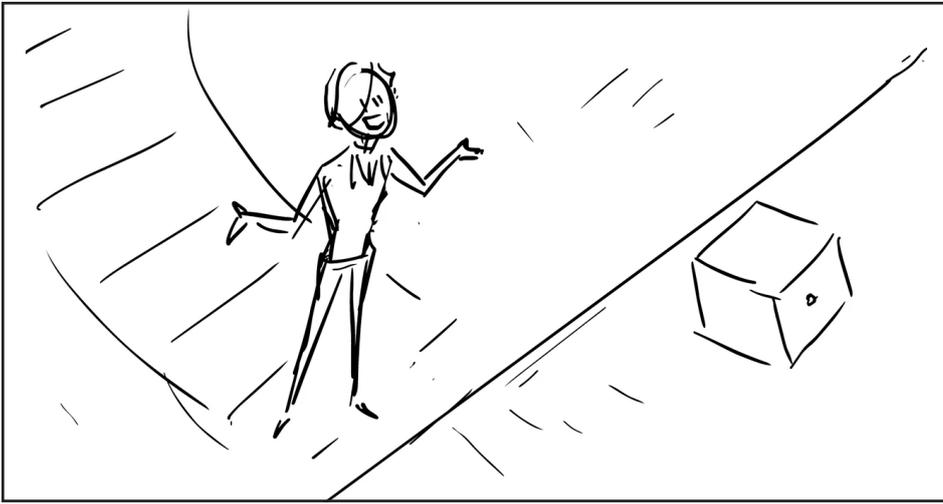

The big Boss observes it ...

...

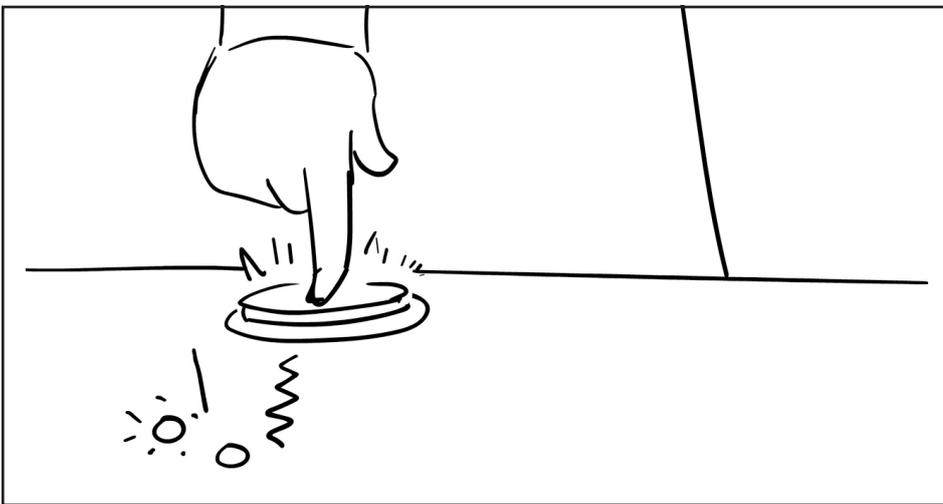

... then shrugs. He doesn't see anything special about it.

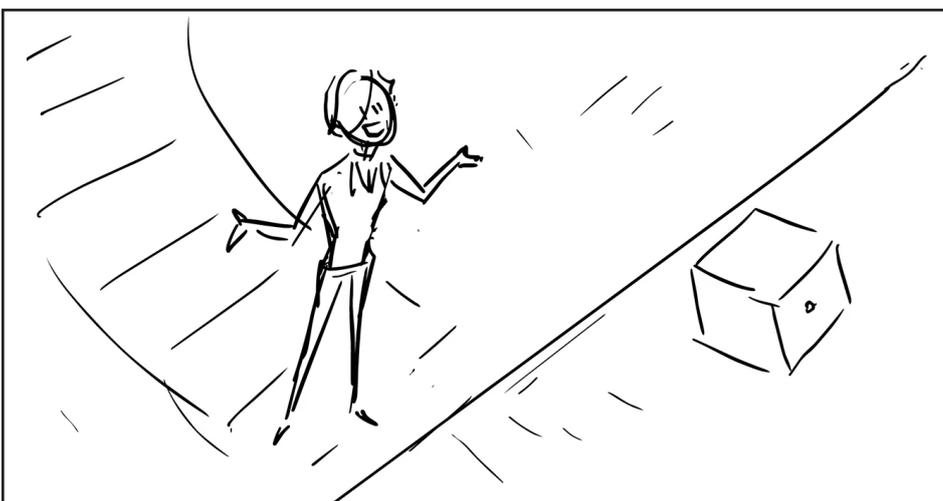

She tries to explain all the great things about the box...

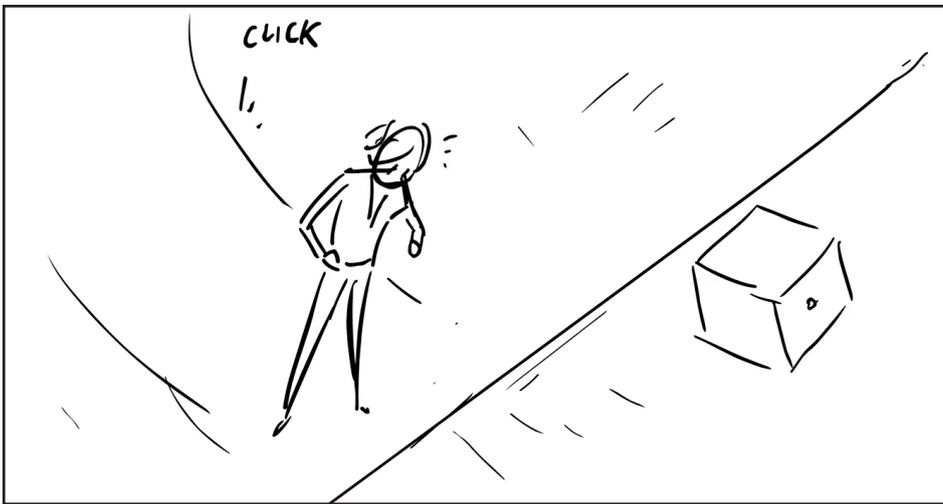

...but the big Boss is not impressed.

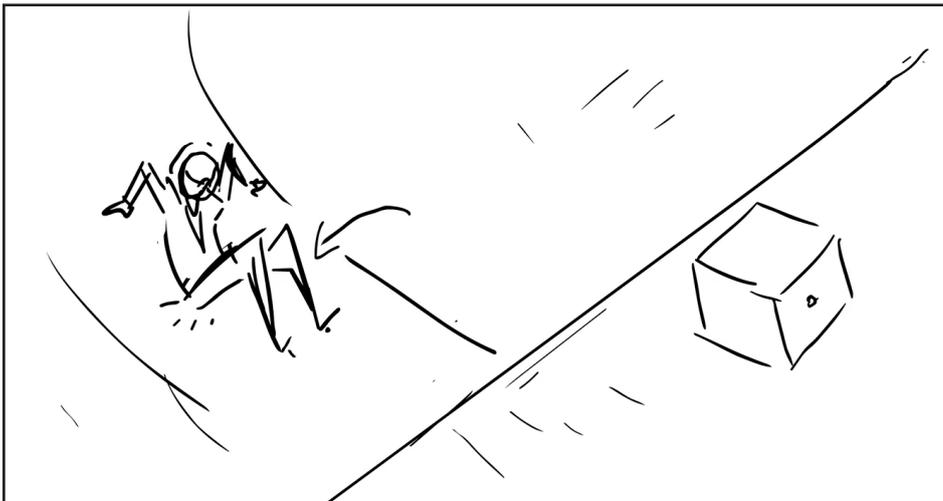

He pushes a button ...

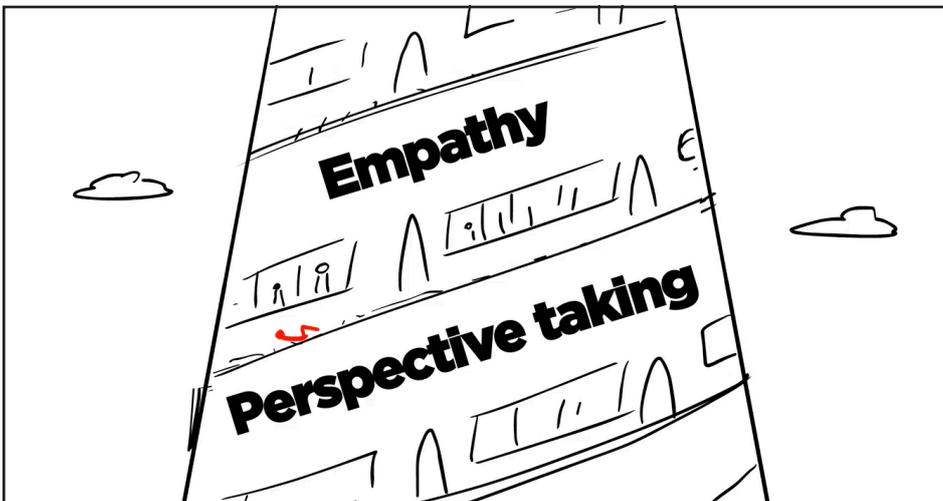

... while the woman is still explaining her new box.

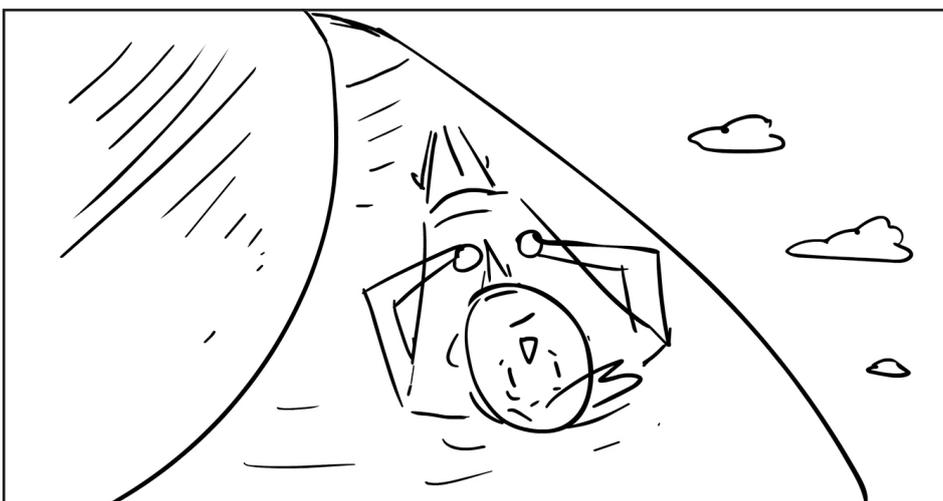

But the stair folds into a slide...

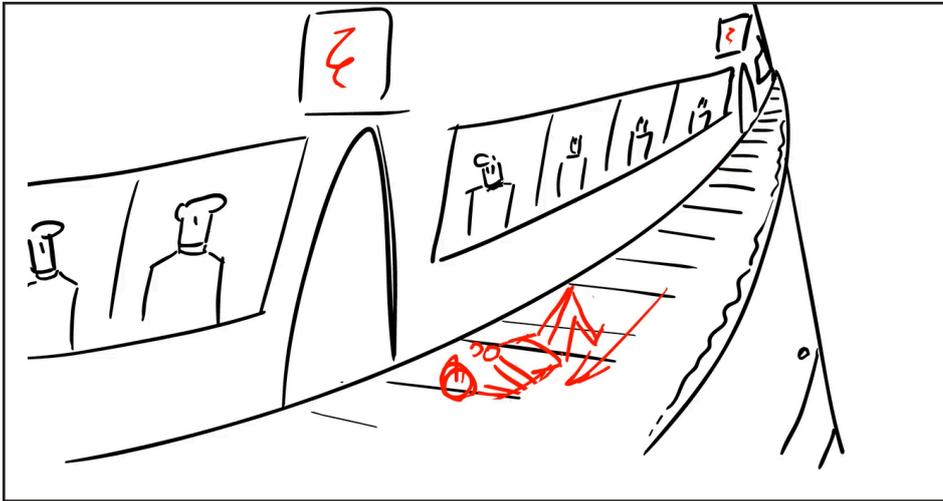

... she falls backwards and slides away.

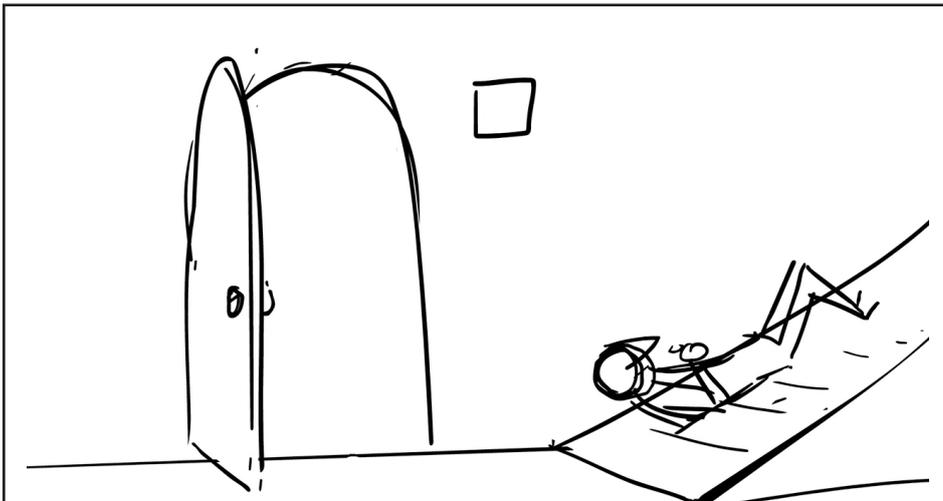

We see her sliding down the tower and passing several personal levels.

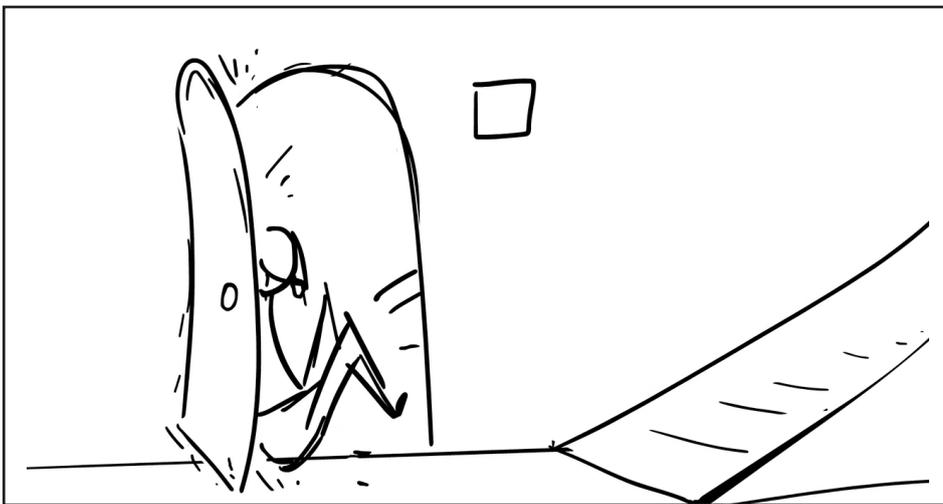

The camera follows her sliding down the tower.

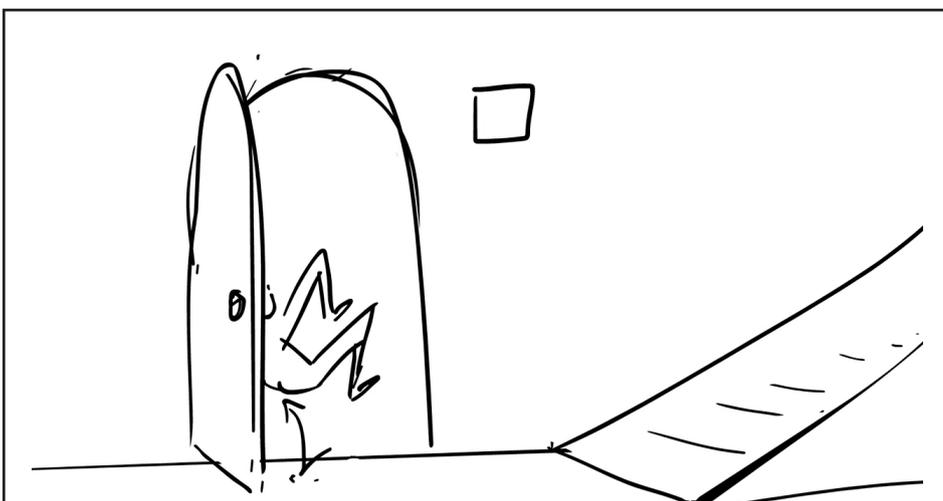

She slides past windows where business men are watching her passing by.

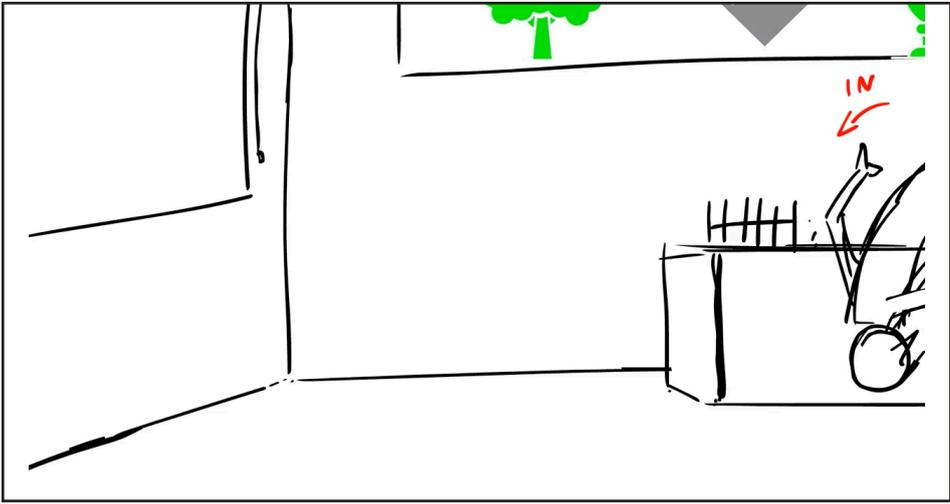

She reaches the end of the slide where she started off...

... hits the open door of her room ...

... and tumbles inside ...

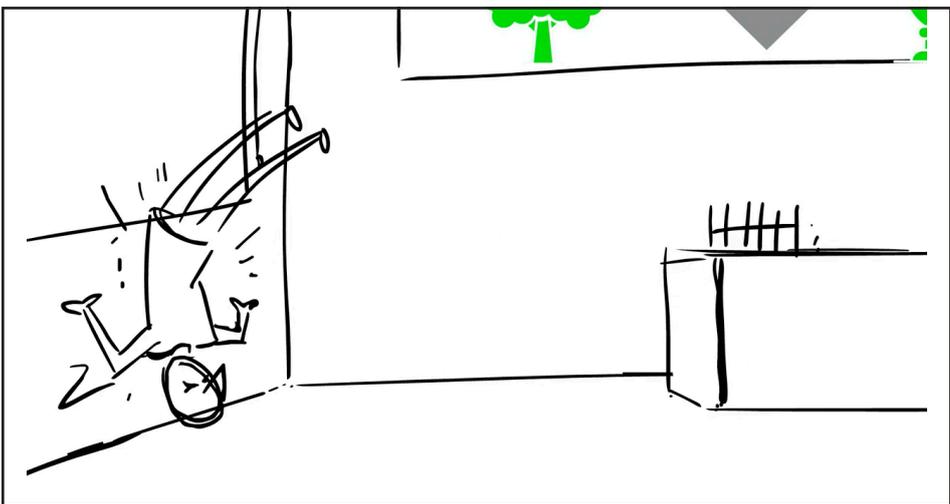

... through the room...

...

...

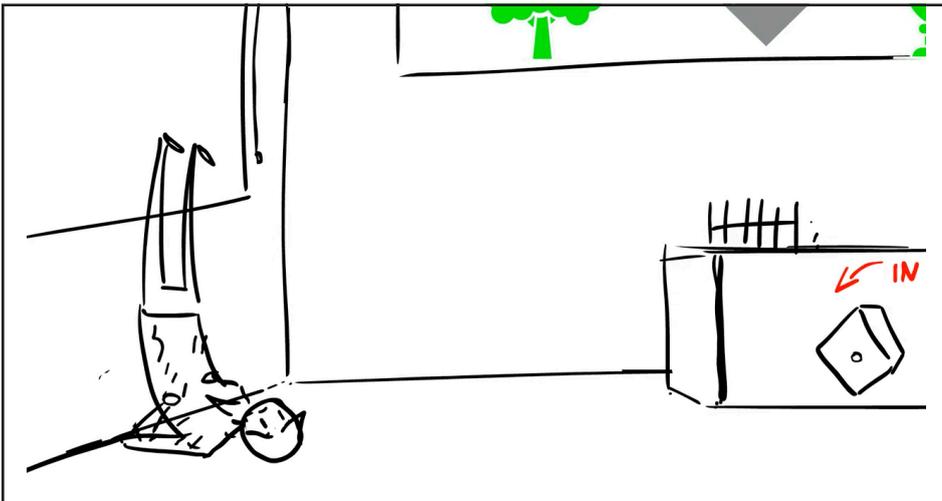

... and hits the wall.

BEAT
She looks sad.

Her box follows her, bouncing over the floor ...

...she sighs.

She stands up and brushes dust from her blazer...

... it is still a bit dirty.

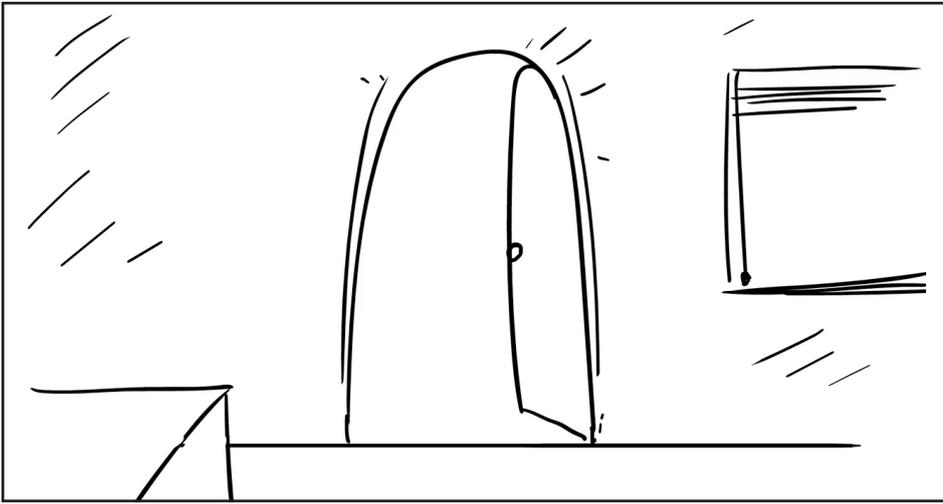

She picks up the box ...

... and looks towards the door.

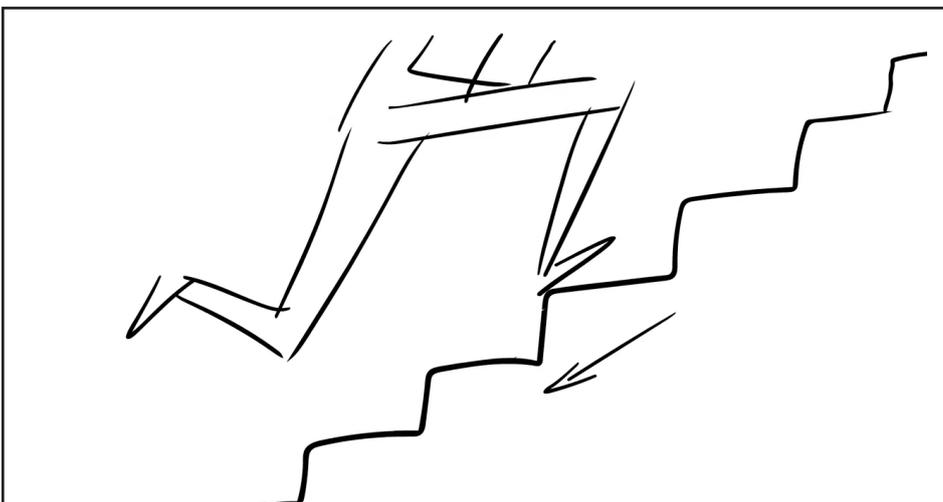

Reverse shot of the room with the open door.

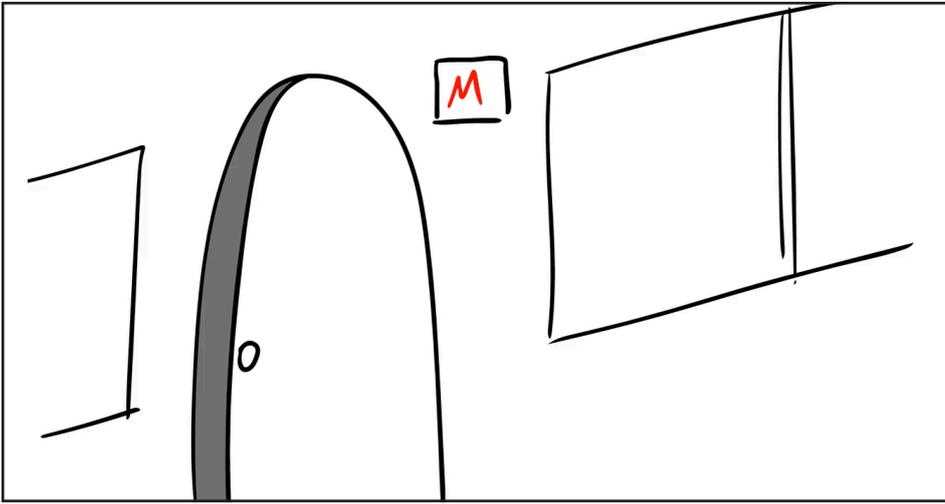

Shot back to her ...

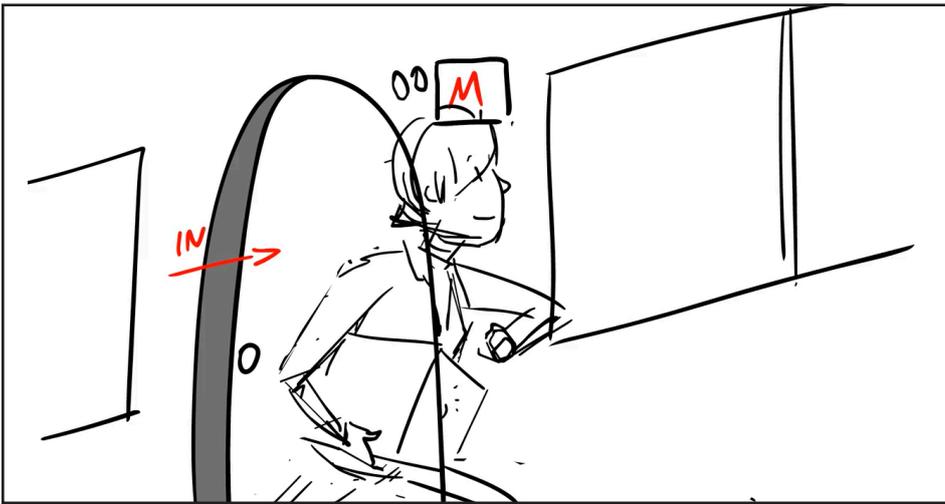

... she looks determined to try it again.

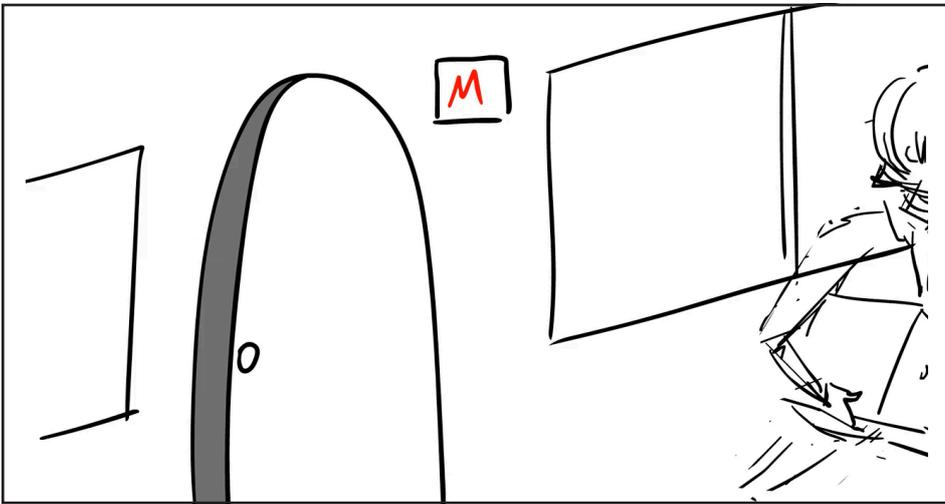

Cut to her running up the stairs.

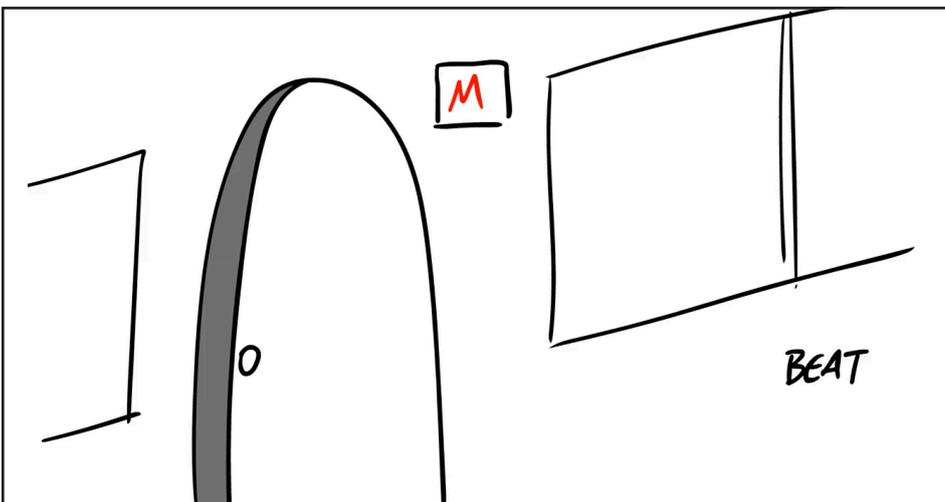

We see one of the several doors which are long the staris ...

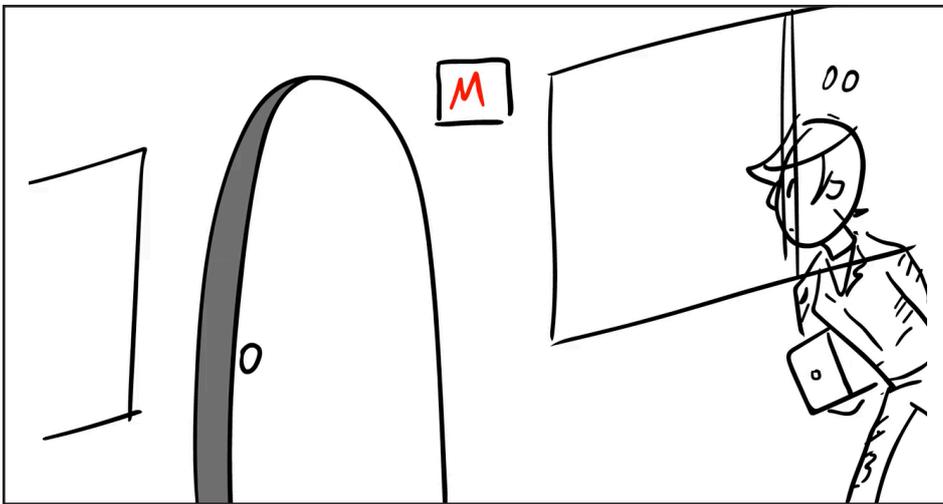

... she runs past the door ...

Beat

She comes back...

... and looks at the sign of the door.

its says: „Growth Mindset“.

Shot from inside of the room and she opening the door slowley ...

... she looks curious into the room.

Point of view.
We see several people working at the desks.

They look up at her smiling and wave friendly.

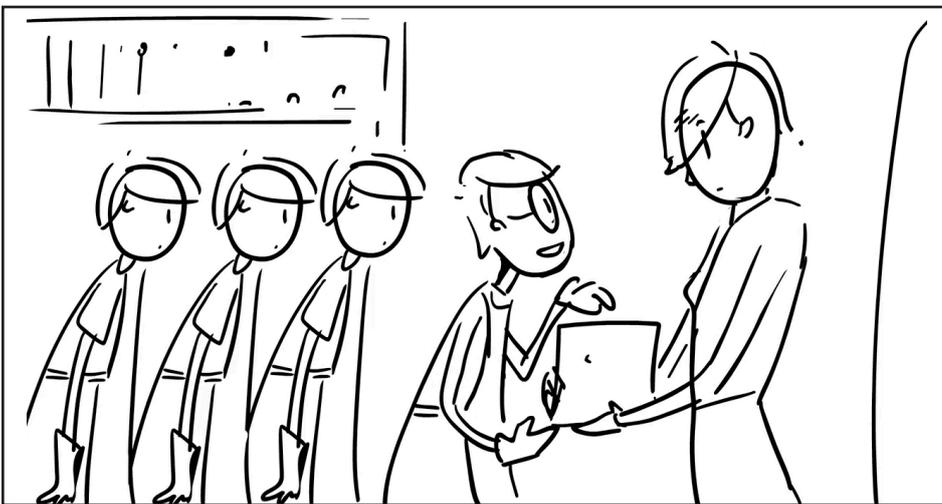

She waves back with a smile.

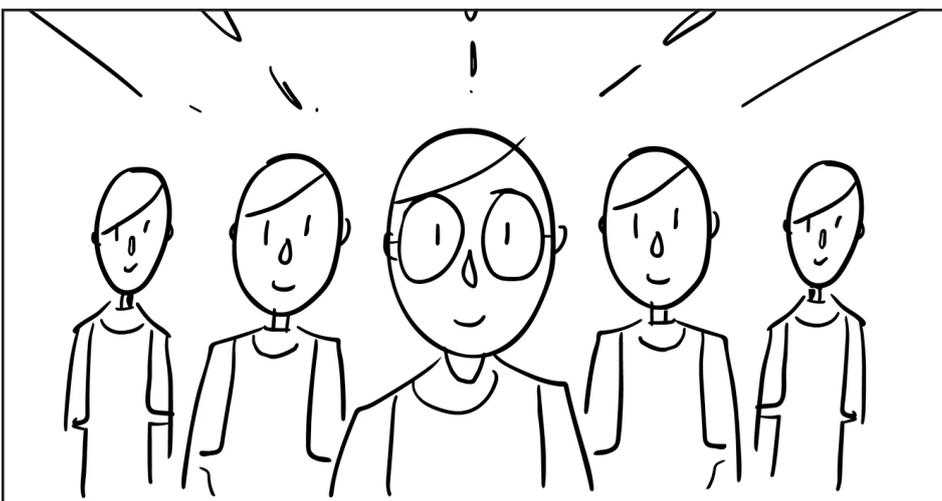

The main worker comes into the picture and walks towards her.

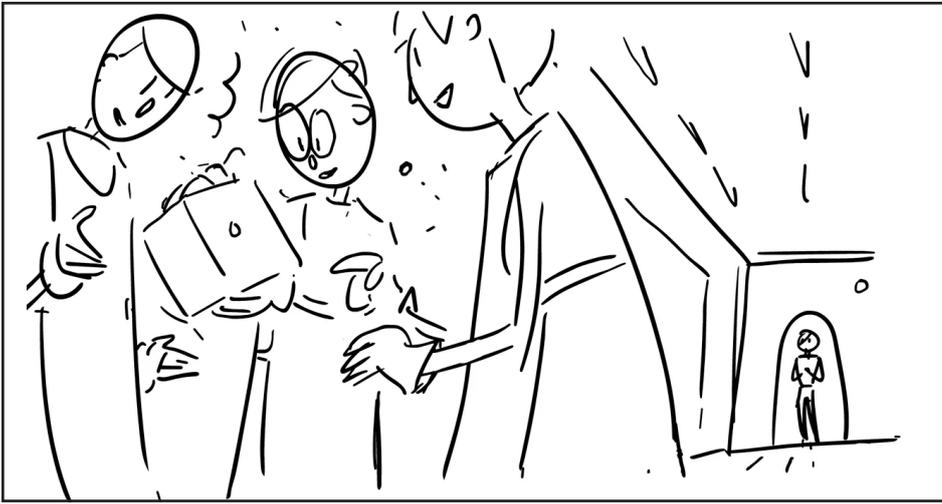

He looks at the box of hers while the other workers follow him into the picture.

He points to the box wanting to help her.

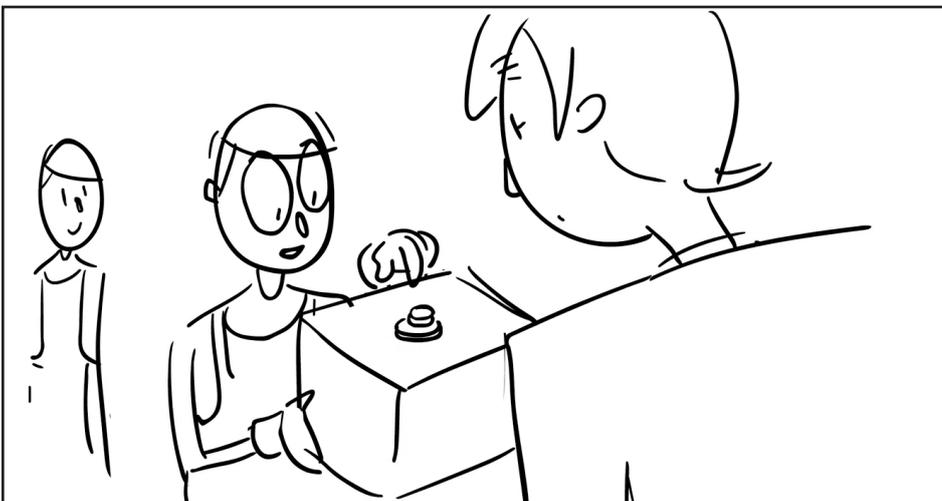

Point of view.
You see that the works smile and her friendly eager to help her out.

They take on the box and analyze it with each other.

One of the workers patches something onto the box while the main worker is holding it.

The main worker turn around to her and points out a new button on the box.

She is not really sure to push the button ...

... but then she does.

The box starts to vibrate wildly

...

... it opens up and bright lights fly out...

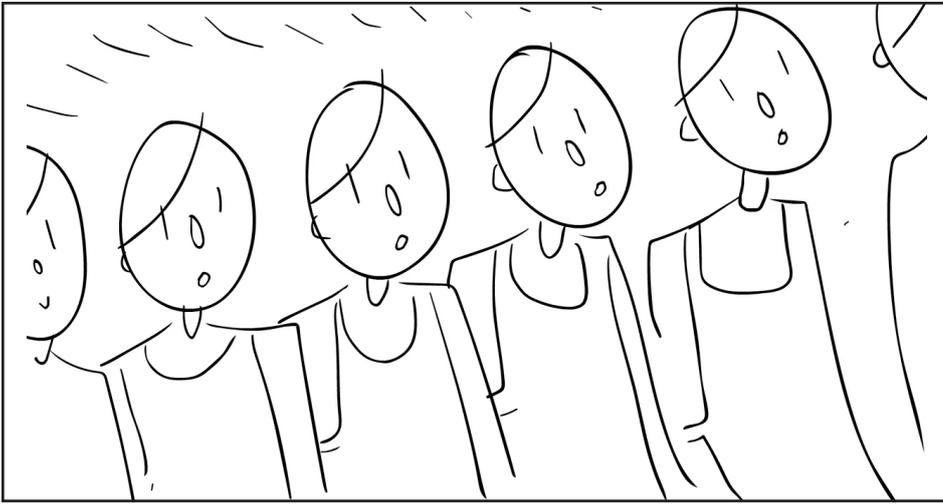

She looks very shocked by this.

Pan Out.

We see a whole spectacle of lights and objects flying out of the box and through the room.

The workers look in awe at the light spectacle.

She doesn't look happy that her box is exposing these lights...

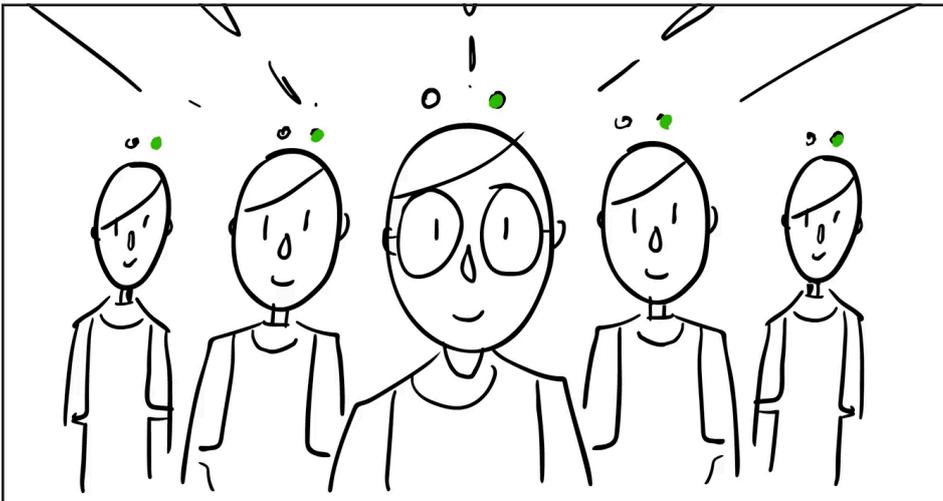

...she jumps forward to grab the box.

She closes the box very quickly so that the lights don't come out anymore.

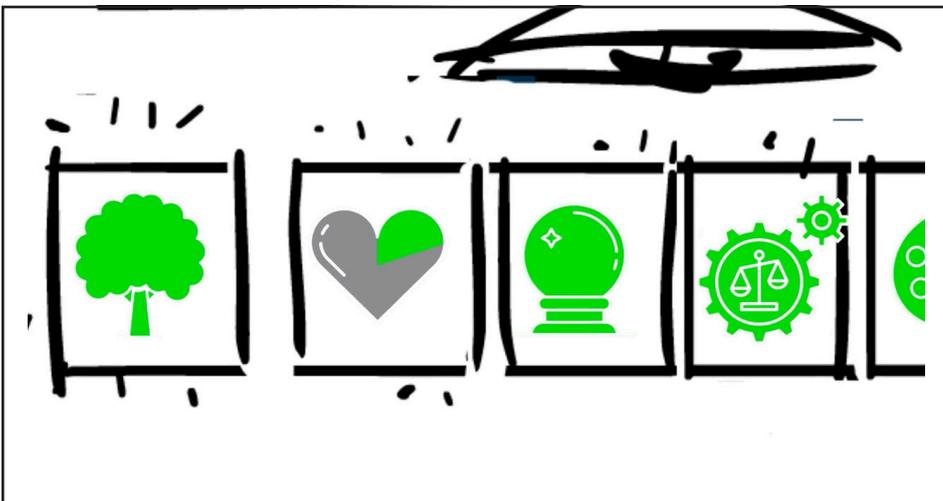

But then she looks up again to the workers.

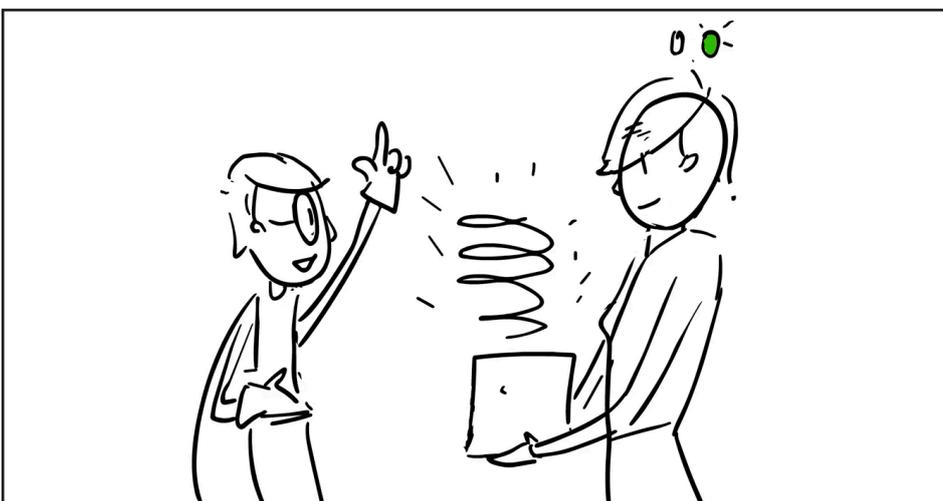

Point of view.
The workers look very happy about the achievement they created together.

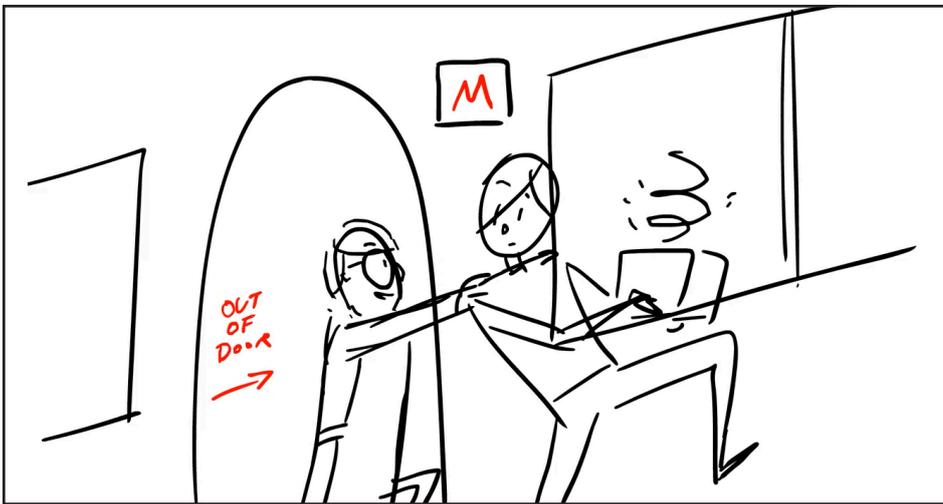

Green lights appear over their heads.

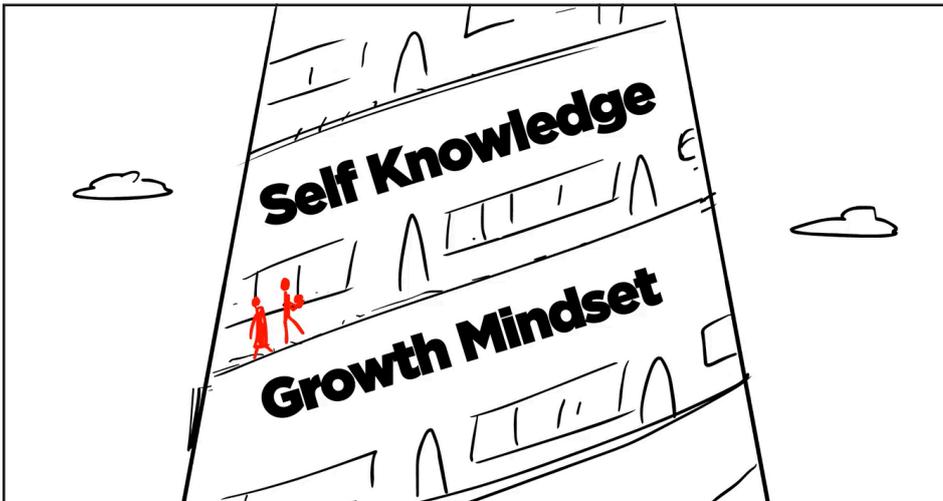

We cut to her room where her heart icons fills up more with the green light.

Cut back again to the worker who is praising her box and points out that this new achievement should be shown to the boss.

We cur back to the front door to the stairs. The worker is pushing her with a smile out of the room and up the staris. He wants to encourage her to show it to the boss.

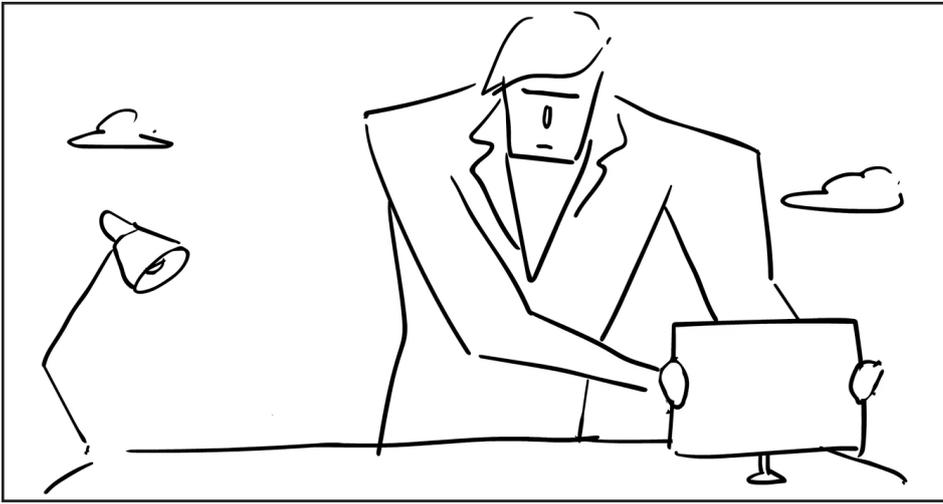

We go through several stages along the tower and everybody wants to help her to improve herself and her box.

At the top of the tower we see her again standing infront of the desk of the boss smiling with her new box through the help of the others along the way.

The boss looks up from his computer with a non impressed face.

He puts the computer aside ...

... and wants her to show him the new box.

She holds up the box which is already glowing with all the new ideas.

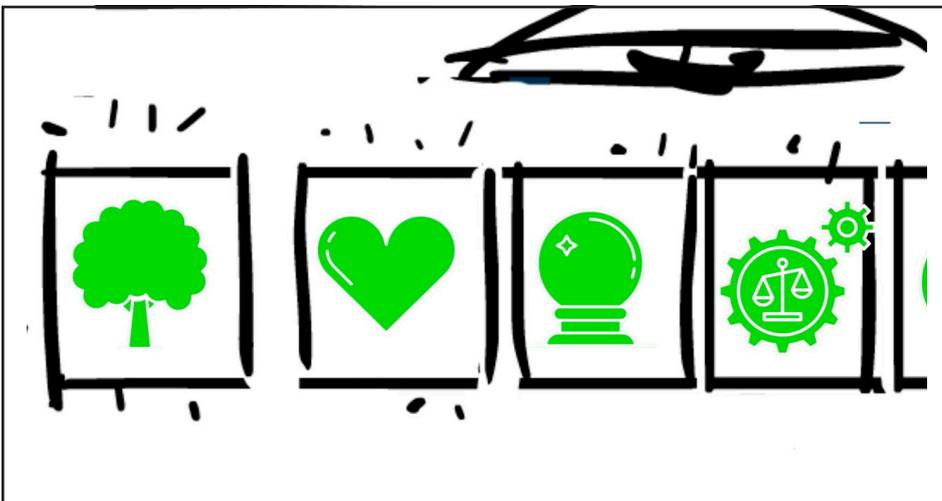

She puts the glowing box onto the desk.

The boss is impressed of the new idea which is thought threw and great! A green light start to glow over his head.

Also the green light over her head starts to brighten up. She is very happy that the boy is a success.

We cut back to her room and the heart icon is now glowing in a complete green.
